Dear Guest:

It's that time of year again; there's a chill and excitement in the air as we look forward to the upcoming holiday season. From Thanksgiving to New Year's day, there are plenty of reasons to celebrate and gather with family and friends. It is this time of year when we begin to focus on what we are thankful for; the people and moments that bring us joy and make us truly grateful.

At The St. Regis Washington, D.C., we are extremely grateful for you, our guests, and are delighted to invite you back for another holiday season of celebration, indulgence and, above all else, joy. By blending the finest in food and festivities with uncompromising service, we have created an array of holiday events for you and your family to enjoy the tastes and traditions of this truly special time of year.

We look forward to welcoming you to The St. Regis Washington, D.C. this holiday season. May your days be filled with love, laughter and exquisite memories.

Sincerely,

Joseph Mattioli
General Manager
